PREFACE

This booklet provides an up-to-date list of Congressional committees and subcommittees, their functions, membership and telephone numbers.

● LISTING -- Democrats are listed on the left, Republicans on the right in order of their seniority on the committee. In the case of party leadership committees, members are listed alphabetically.

● TELEPHONE NUMBERS -- Call Capitol 4-3121 and ask for the extension shown unless the list indicates otherwise. The parent committee handles calls for subcommittees without individual telephone extensions.

● KEY -- Full committee names are in boldface type, while subcommittee names are capitalized. *Asterisk following the names of the committee chairman or ranking minority member indicates ex officio member of all subcommittees. †Dagger indicates ex officio member from another committee.

CAPITOL TELEPHONE: Capitol 4-3121

1960 JOINT COMMITTEES, SUBCOMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

Following is a list of nine major joint Congressional committees and their subcommittees. Joint committees are set up to examine specific questions, and their existence may be continued or terminated as the need exists. Membership is drawn from both chambers and both parties. When a Senator serves as chairman, the vice chairman usually is a Representative, and vice versa.

Other joint committees are those on: Construction of a Building for Museum of History and Technology for the Smithsonian Institution; Immigration and Nationality Policy; Navajo-Hopi Indian Administration.
